

Happy Sad

Happy Sad
tap tappin' at your window let's go wanderin' in the morning light which ever way the wind blows

Happy Sad
I could tumble like your clown you and I we harmonize when the dark blues come around

I have seen you in your glory I have watched you in your pain in the middle of the story you go dancing in the rain

Happy Sad
you do comedy in style with just a hint of tragedy in every sideways smile

Happy Sad
we are never far apart in the whisper of a look you touch the corners of my heart

I have seen you in your freedom words go dancing 'cross the page oh the heart, she has her reasons behind the curtain, on the stage

Happy Sad
oh the others don't know why but I've seen you disappearing 'round the corner just to cry

Happy Sad
you were counting on your friend somehow I lost my courage now I'm here to make amends

In the middle of the story you go waltzing 'cross the room you're a lover, you know lonely you're a daffodil, you bloom
